Dick and Tunky Riley Award for School Improvement Council Excellence

The annual Dick and Tunky Riley Award for School Improvement Council Excellence was created in 2002 to recognize the significant contributions made to public education by the nearly 15,000 School Improvement Council (SIC) members who volunteer in every public school in the state. The award is named in honor of former South Carolina Governor and US Education Secretary Richard Riley and his late wife, Tunky, and recognizes the couple's longstanding commitment to quality public education. Previous recipients of the Riley Award for SIC Excellence include:
